

Proclamation

by

Matthew G. Bevin
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, Law enforcement officers demonstrate remarkable courage, integrity and commitment by protecting the lives and property of the citizens of our Commonwealth; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky is the proud home of more than 8,100 dedicated police officers who put their lives on the line every day to keep our communities safe; and
- WHEREAS, The Commonwealth appreciates the extraordinary effort and sacrifice made by our officers and their family members to protect our schools, workplaces, roadways and homes; and
- WHEREAS, The 10th month and the 8th day of the calendar year represents law enforcement's radio 10-code for an officer being in service;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim October 8th, 2016, as

LAW ENFORCEMENT DAY OF PRAYER

in Kentucky, and encourage citizens to collectively pray for those within our law enforcement community.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 29th day of September, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Sixteen and in the 225th year of the Commonwealth.
